

Paranormal Activity in Kirwin?

Is the ghost town of Kirwin haunted?

Probably, according to a recent paranormal investigation and documentary.

Haunted Hotels of America returned to the region in August to film the documentary.

Led by brothers Clay and Seth Johnson (formerly of Cody and both Cody High School graduates), Haunted Hotels teamed up with Adventure Myths of Waldorf, Md.

The crew spent four days researching, filming and investigating the paranormal activity of the abandoned mining town Aug. 17-20.

The Johnson brothers have investigated several locations in the area – the Irma, the Buffalo Bill Historical Center (now Center of the West), the Smith Mansion (west of Wapiti), and Buffalo Bill's original hunting lodge at Pahaska.

Click to read more.

Image courtesy of sxc.hu.